Final exam	20 %
Active class participation	10 %

GENERAL POLICIES:

1. Always bring the assigned text to class. You are expected to complete the reading assignments prior to each class. For each reading assignment, you will receive a sheet of study questions. You should be prepared to answer these questions in class.
2. There will be two critical/analytical papers, each requiring you to think carefully about some aspect of the works under consideration. The papers are to be word-processed, double-spaced, and free from spelling errors. Each assignment will be explained by a handout and will be discussed in detail in class. All papers must be handed in on time. A 1/2 grade deduction will be made for each day delayed.
3. Two in-class examinations, short answers and essay in format, will be given one third and two thirds of the way through the semester. There will also be a non-cumulative final exam. No make-up exam will be given unless you can validate your absence through documentation from the Dean's Office.

4. Participation is evaluated on the basis of your general attendance, concentration, prior reading of the materials, and your contribution to class discussion.
5. Final grades will be given on the basis of the following scale: A=95; A-=90; B+=87; B=84; B-=80;..., D=60, E = below 60. To receive a final grade for the course, all assignments must be completed.
